

Self-esteem

The collection contains lectures delivered at the Thinking Academy, that will help readers, interested in the subject, become familiar with the basic elements of healthy self-esteem.

The formation of the correct self-esteem, which means maintaining a balance in existing ideas and thoughts about oneself, is the basis of a true and fulfilling human life.